17th International Project Week 2015
4th – 8th May 2015

Project Description

Lecturer: Corinna Casi

University/Company: Arbis (Swedish Adult Education Centre)

Country: Finnland

Introduction to Environmental Ethics

Content:
Overview over the history of environmental ethics: what was before, how and why it emerged as a field, different approaches to env. ethics (Utilitarianism, Deep Ecology, Ecofeminism, Env. Pragmatism) and application to case studies.

Methods:
Lecture, debates in class and documentary movies, small home assignments

Competences and skills to be acquired:
Knowledge of the basic environmental ethical concepts and School of Thoughts
Awareness about the important role of environment,
Critical analysis of case studies with ethical considerations

Prerequisite: previous study in philosophy and ethics are helpful but not needed

Language of instruction: English

Suitable studies: URT, GT, TSA, RET, SoMa