

22nd International Project Week
11th – 15th May 2020

Lecturer: Michael Daly

University/Company: Michael Daly T/A The Barnabas Project

Country: Ireland

Leadership and developing self-leadership skills and traits within a social work context

Content:

The following six traits will be looked at and dealt with when delivering this project –

Trait 1 BEING DETERMINED

Trait 2 GETTING CREATIVE

Trait 3 PLAYING TO YOUR STRENGTHS

Trait 4 HAVING A VISION FOR YOUR LIFE AND WORK

Trait 5 KNOWING YOUR MISSION

Trait 6 STAYING FOCUSED

Methods:

The course will be taught in such a way that it will involve individual and group work by the students.

Competences and skills to be acquired:

It would be the intention that having completed this course the students will:

1. Know of and understand the six traits of being a self-leader within their own life and future work environments|
2. Have an understanding of what it is they are strong at and|
3. How they can best maximize and use their strengths to the best of their abilities within their own lives and work.

Prerequisites:

That the student comes with an open mind and is prepared to work on their own initiative as well as play a full and active part in all group work activities.

Language of instruction:

English

Recommended for:

Social Sciences