Multi Agency Working in Child Protection

Content:
Who are the key agencies? Why work together? How does it happen?
Processes and legislation which underpin multi agency working.

Methods:
Some role play
Traditional lecturing
Self directed study/research

Competences and skills to be acquired:
To understand how agencies share information and why.
To gain a clear understanding of processes and legislation which underpin child protection.

Prerequisites:
Some understanding of child protection

Language of instruction: English

Recommended for: Social Studies