Business Ethics

Content:
- to provide a basic introduction in Business Ethics
- to get aware of the importance of Globalization and Sustainability as key subjects in Business Ethics
- Corporate Responsibility
- to distinguish the various concepts of Corporate Social Responsibility
- the stake-holders-theory of the firm as key concept in Business-Society relations

Methods:
- Lectures
- Participation in the class
- Students prepare a number of cases and discuss questions within small groups
- The group will give presentations and lead the discussion about the subjects
- Students prepare individually written reports

Competences and skills to be acquired:
To get familiar with project work,
To do simple research exercises,
To participate in, and to lead discussions.

Prerequisites:
At least 2nd year-students from the Business Department

Language of instruction: English

Recommended for: Economics