20th International Project Week 2018
23rd – 27th April 2018

Lecturer: Laurentiu Nicolae Costrut & Eglė Naraškevičiūtė

University/Company: Freelancer

Country: Romania / Lithuania

Family Without Borders: Genograms of the nowadays

Content:
- Introduction to transgenerational concept (Bowen’s Family Theory)
- Genogram: symbols, types, usages
- GenoPro software for creating genograms
- Interpreting/Understanding genograms
- Making the Genogram of your own family (paper, pencil and in software)
- Discussion and workgroup about different family structures of nowadays (cross-cultural, LGBTQ+, adopted/foster, divorced families)
- Applications in professional work: Genogram interview, consulting skills

Methods:
- Interactive lectures with media content
- Role play, experiential activities, workshops
- Group debate, individual self-reflection tasks
- Software training

Competences and skills to be acquired:
By the end of this training, students will have acquired and will be able to demonstrate:
- Thorough knowledge of the trans-generational theory (Bowen’s Family Theory)
- Skills in making and understanding the Genogram and its application software (GenoPro)
- Knowledge and skills about Genogram in practice: usage as instruments and methods to gather information
- Knowledge and skills to reflect on sensitive topics related to different family structures
- Self-reflection skills

Prerequisites:
- Interest or/and studying in social, psychology related areas, consulting
- Willingness for family analysis and self-reflection

Language of instruction: English

Recommended for: Social Studies